

BARRY CROTTY NAMED MANAGER OF FRANK HOWARD ALLEN, TIBURON

Novato, CA, December 14, 2009 — Frank Howard Allen is excited to announce that Barry Crotty, a real estate veteran with 23 years of experience, has been named Manager of the Tiburon office. Crotty most recently served as Branch Manager of Pacific Union, Mill Valley, prior to which he was the Sales Manager of Coldwell Banker in Greenbrae.

“Barry began his real estate career in 1986 in the South Bay; fortunately for us he made the move to Marin County in 1995, and joined our San Rafael office,” says Ronna Somers, General Sales Manager of Frank Howard Allen. “We are thrilled that he has returned to manage the Tiburon office. Barry is very sharp and has a strong history of success in supporting agents and their clients; we’re proud to have him on our team.”

In addition to sales and management, Crotty is very active within the real estate community and proudly served as a director on the Marin Association of Realtors (MAR) Board from 2002 – 2005. In addition, Crotty is the 2004 past-president of MAR and was honored by MAR as the 2006 Realtor of the Year. Crotty also previously served as director for the California Association of Realtors and was on the Board of the Northern California Multiple Listing Service.

Crotty offers a unique leadership approach. As a sales agent, he combined the best of new and old in doing business and plans to bring his enthusiasm for staying on top of technology trends, as well as his personalized care and professionalism, to his new role.

Crotty is an advocate for his community and for the homeless where he counts his seven years of service on the board of directors for Homeward Bound of Marin, and his past chairmanship of the organization’s real estate development committee, among his most important community involvements.
