

Dozens of Frank Howard Allen Agents Contribute to Rebuilding Together in Marin Teams From San Rafael, Greenbrae, Novato and Other Offices Get Together at the Annual Community Event This Saturday, April 28, 2007

NOVATO, CA April 25, 2007 — Each year teams from Frank Howard Allen Realtors join forces to make a difference in the lives of people in need of help. It's our tradition to participate in the good work that Rebuilding Together does for local Marin organizations. Rebuilding Together coordinates projects that take place throughout the US. This Saturday, April 28, there are six projects happening in Marin including work at: The Canal Alliance, Marin Services for Men, and Voyager Carmel / Homeward Bound of Marin in San Rafael, the San Anselmo Co-op, Novato Youth Center and The North Bay Children's Center in Novato.

The Frank Howard Allen team from Novato will be rolling up their sleeves to participate in painting throughout the Novato Youth Center. The Center serves over 2,200 youth and parents, provides a continuum of care through a variety of services including childcare for infants to 14 year olds, family counseling, tutoring, Latino outreach, teen pregnancy prevention, parenting workshops, and indoor soccer and basketball leagues.

Teams from the Frank Howard Allen San Rafael, Greenbrae and several other offices led by Cindy Shelton from the San Rafael Office, will be found working at the North Bay Children's Center, making improvements to the vegetable and fruit garden. NBCC is a non-profit, community-supported organization in the Hamilton neighborhood in Novato. NBCC provides a nurturing environment for children helping to foster their emotional, intellectual, social and physical well-being.

About Rebuilding Together

Rebuilding Together was at one time called "Christmas in April." The Marin chapter is part of a national organization that includes more than 240 affiliates serving 1,880 cities and towns nationwide. Each year, over a quarter of a million volunteers mobilize to help support low-income homeowners and nonprofit agencies. Rebuilding Together Marin is a non-profit community-based organization dedicated to assisting low-income homeowners, particularly the elderly, disabled, and families with children, to live in warmth, safety and independence through volunteer repair of owner-occupied homes and non-profit facilities serving those groups.
