

SPIRO STRATIGOS NAMED MANAGER OF FRANK HOWARD ALLEN, NOVATO Sales Agent Brings 10 Years of Experience and a Passionate Vision to Established Office

Novato, CA – Spiro Stratigos, a top producing sales agent, active community member and Marin County native has been named Manager at Frank Howard Allen's Novato Office, continuing a family tradition that spans three generations in real estate sales and management.

"He brings great enthusiasm and an innovative approach to this position. We feel fortunate to have Spiro leading our Novato Office," said Kathleen Hilken, EVP/General Manager of Frank Howard Allen.

Spiro hopes to develop a new philosophy for the office, building on Frank Howard Allen's core competencies. "Frank Howard Allen is a hands-on company, with an accessible and responsive executive team, established managers, fully staffed facilities and state-of-the-art systems," said Spiro. "My goal for the Novato Office is to provide each person who walks through the door with a chance to succeed by remaining current and providing quality tools and guidance," Spiro continues.

Prior to Frank Howard Allen, Spiro worked as a real estate office manager, supervising over 80 sales/listing transactions and $50 million in residential sales. Spiro began his career in Fresno after attending California State University, Fresno and earning a B.S. in Business Administration – Real Estate and Urban Land Economics Option. After joining Frank Howard Allen as a sales agent at the Novato Office, Spiro earned many achievements, including recognition as the Top Team (Stratigos-Freeman Group) and a top 10% ranking, companywide.

Outside the office, Spiro is a prolific community member, serving as current, and past, President on the Board of Directors, Hamilton Field of Marin Association (2004, 2007). "Being on the Board is very important to me because of the value I place on keeping the community rich for people to enjoy themselves," explains Spiro. A Board member since 2002, Spiro has worked to gain trail access for the Hamilton subdivisions, keep the green belts green and he collaborates with the City to ensure that the standards expected by the residents of Hamilton are met. In addition, Spiro is a Parks and Recreation Commissioner (City of Novato) and much like his desire to keep his office up to speed, he strives to see that the proper facilities are in place to accommodate the entire community – seniors, adults and children. Additionally, Spiro supports local schools and, placing great value on his family's heritage, is active in the Greek Orthodox Church.

Spiro brings his spirit of community to the workplace. "The reason that I am where I am is because I've always thought not just about what's important for me, but what's important for all agents – what we can do to create a better 'us'," said Spiro.
