

WHY US?

Uncompromising professional service is our legacy.

We have taken great pride in offering home buying and listing services since 1910™. Over the years we've specialized in a wide range of properties from one bedroom condos to luxury estates. All of our buyers have one thing in common: We've helped them realize a dream. All of our customers share one common trait: They're our neighbors. One of the most important things we're known for is our uncompromising level of professional service.

Experience, knowledge, dedication and exceptional negotiation skills make a real difference.

Frank Howard Allen agents are consummate professionals. State-of-the-art training, fast access to up-to-date information, superior marketing and technology support, and top-notch administrative support equip them to perform at their best — skillfully negotiating on your behalf — and getting the results you as our client deserves. Unlike many other firms, private or nationally owned, our sales associates are full-time professionals that take their careers seriously. It's one of the reasons the very Best Agents in the Business™ come to work at our company — and one of the reasons they stay with us.

Our reputation for excellence, standards, ethics and longevity is undeniable.

Every one of our sales associates is dedicated to providing intelligent guidance, sound advice and expert service to our clients. Frank Howard Allen is an industry leader in setting high performance standards, following strict ethics guidelines and inspiring its agents to reach new heights of accomplishment year after year. Our agents have earned the respect of their peers, industry professionals and most of all, from you, our customers. A vast majority of our business comes from referrals and repeat business. The fact that more than a third of our agents have been with Frank Howard Allen for more than 10 years speaks volumes. The fact that we've been proudly independent and privately owned for nearly 100 years is a big part of why our company culture is so strong and our business is so successful.

Community is a part of who we are.

One of the most compelling characteristics of Frank Howard Allen and its people is extraordinary dedication to the communities where we live and work. Our owners, staff and agents volunteer time and provide resources to hundreds of local organizations in need. Frank Howard Allen fosters a spirit and culture of giving back. 100% of our energy and resources is focused exclusively serving North Bay communities.

Love where you live™
